9. Code of Behavior and Ethics

Overview

On becoming a Member of the MENA Tour, each member voluntarily submits himself to standards of behavior and ethical conduct beyond those required of ordinary golfers and members of the public. The MENA Tour must represent a hallmark of honesty, fair dealings, courtesy and sportsmanship, which each Member is bound to honor at all times, on or off the golf course.

It is impossible to define the exact standard of conduct expected from Members in all circumstances or to list all acts which would amount to a breach of the Code and lead to disciplinary sanctions. In most cases, common sense should tell the Member the standard of behavior that is required. Any Member who has any doubts as to the conduct expected of him should contact a MENA Tour official for advice.

Guidelines

In most circumstances the following acts or omissions will be considered to be contrary to the MENA Tour Code of Behavior and Ethics. If it is established that a player has breached one or more of these, a penalty will be imposed. These guidelines are designed to assist MENA Tour officials and Members in identifying the standard of conduct and ethics expected from MENA Tour Members and to set out procedures to be followed where there may have been a breach of the same.

- a. Etiquette. Failure to comply with normally accepted standards of courtesy and golf etiquette is considered a serious offence. This includes but is not limited to
  - Failure to repair divots,
  - Failure to repair pitch marks,
